

Estimating Role

Due to continued success, we are actively seeking an Estimator to join our pre-contract team.

This is a great opportunity to work for one of the UK's Leading privately owned Civil Engineering and Building contractors.

Alpha Construction Ltd and dedicated to successfully delivering a diverse range of project across the UK. Operating in the Energy, industrial and commercial sectors our projects vary in value from 500k to £10 million.

Ideally you will have Experience with Industrial buildings, small/medium scale civil engineering projects, drainage, and concrete structures. Working contract knowledge including NEC3 Options A and B, JCT, ICE Measurement CESMM and "builders' quants"

The Position Attracts:

- A competitive salary with company vehicle or allowance
- A generous Holiday allowance, contributory pension and life assurance scheme bi annual bonus and private healthcare
- Potential for progression within the business

Qualifications, a minimum of Civil Engineering and/or Quantity Surveying degree.

If you're ready for a new challenge and want to be part of a supportive, forward-thinking team—we want to hear from you!